-Madame Pompadour's Garter is the name of a new, thrilling and historical romance of the reign of Louis XV, by Gabrielle de St. Andre, now in press and to be published in a few days by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. It is a romance of the days of Madame Pompadour, is a story of love, intrigue and facts, and will no doubt rove to be one of the most popular and successful novels that have appeared in print for years, for its pages will be courted and perused by all that are fond of a thoroughly good novel, for its great and absorbing interest. It will be issued in uniform style and price with Theo, Kathleen, Gabrielle and Miss Crespigny, published by the same firm. -A celebrated English physician says that edestrian exercise particularly exhausts the spind and brain, and is, therefore, the kind of exercise least suited to intellectually hard-

The Best and Most Economical Housekeepers are giving the cheap, adulterated baking-powders a "wide berth," and why? Because experience has taught them that an absolutely pure, full strength, full weight article, such as Dooley's yeast powder, which never fails to produce light, whole some and nutritious biscuits, rolls, muffins, waffles and griddle-cakes of all kinds, is by far the cheapest and most economical.
